Putting the change in currency exchange

We know many property settlements involve a transfer of funds from or to an offshore bank account. A new way to make this transfer is through the Send Payments platform – offering a convenient, safe and cost-effective method of transfer.

Through a partnership with PEXA, who offer digital property settlements, you can now easily complete an international transfer as part of your sale or purchase of a property.

Send Payments aims to set a new standard on international payments, assisting you with a seamless and secure alternative to the traditional banks.

What Send can do for you

Send's online platform can help you move money internationally in a convenient, safe and cost-effective way.

Beyond transferring the proceeds of a property sale overseas, Send can also assist with a range of other cross-border payment scenarios including

- Estate transfers to overseas beneficiaries
- Pension transfers
- Purchase and sale of overseas shares
- Businesses that import and export
- Repayment of foreign currency loans and more

Is it safe to transfer money with Send?

Keeping funds secure is of the utmost importance to Send. We use bank-level security standards on all Send products. This isn't just a nice-to-have, this is mandatory for us to be able to move your money around the world, while adhering to our financial services license.

All data is 256K encrypted from end to end. Every aspect of our infrastructure is built to ensure it has the least privileges possible and whenever possible, following best practices.
